SENIOR LUNCHEON

Our next Senior Adult Luncheon is Monday, April 22. Our menu that day will include a "Chicken Salad Cold Plate" along with potato salad and dessert. We have a great program entitled "LIFE EVER-LAUGHTER" being presented by my friend Norman Keesee from Greenwood. You will love his humor presented through music. Invite your friends, and be sure to sign up! ($7 per person)

SENIOR ADULT SUNDAY

Sunday, May 5, is a special day when we recognize the senior adults of our church and thank them for their faithfulness to the Lord. We will have special music presented by our Live Wire Choir and the Jubilee Ringers that morning. After the worship service there will be a lunch for all senior adults in the Fellowship Hall. This meal, prepared by Hattie Green and family, is always a special treat. We do need to know how many plates to prepare. Please sign up on the bulletin board, or call the office to reserve your place at the table. (This lunch is provided by the church.)

MUSIC MINISTRY

There are some days when I am simply at a loss for words to adequately express my feelings or describe an experience. This past Sunday was one of those days!! All I can say is "WOW!" Thank you, Patti and Matt, for that thrilling arrangement of "This Little Light of Mine" during the offertory. After that, Patti and Matt, along with the Sanctuary Choir, presented a thrilling rendition of "I'll Fly Away." It was a truly uplifting moment in worship! Thank you, Choir, Patti and Matt for your magnificent music. Also, thank you, congregation, for your wonderful singing on the hymns. It was a great day of worship!
