SEEING STARS

The stars shine over the montains,
The stars shine over the sea,
The stars look up to the mighty God
The stars look down on me;
The stars shall last for a million years,
A million years and a day,
But God and I will live and love,
When the stars have passed away.

REMEMBERING

Do you ever think about people in your past that helped you in your spiritual walk with God? God did that for Peter, James and John at Christ's transfiguration. He shared a miraculous interaction between His Word (Christ) and Moses and Elijah.

God revealed the glory of His Word, Jesus. With that he was showing Christ's disciples; Peter, James and John, that obeying Law, Moses, and the prophet, Elijah, were not as important as obeying His Word. The Word has always been there and has interacted with all creation since the beginning of time.

God used His relationship with His friends to help the disciples create a closer relationship with Him through Jesus Christ.

Using the exemplary lives of men and women in our past can help remind us of our need to draw closer to God. How much more do we, especially today, need to follow this example set by our Lord and Savior?
