

FIRST BAPTIST BELTON YOUTH MINISTRY

WINTER 2021 edition

SUNDAY NIGHT SOCIALS

WHAT?	WHEN?	WHERE?
High School Girls' Hangout	Sunday, January 10th 6:00-8:00 p.m.	The Wurst's House
FUN Night-Dinner and Bowling	Sunday, January 17th 5:30 p.m.-~ 9:30 p.m.	MEET at church then head to dinner and bowling
High School Boys' Hangout	Sunday, January 24th 6:00-8:00 p.m.	The Wurst's House
Middle School Girls' Hangout	Sunday, January 31st 6:00-8:00 p.m.	The Wurst's House
Middle School Boys' Hangout	Sunday, February 7th 6:00-8:00 p.m.	The Wurst's House
Valentine's Day Youth Celebration For ALL Youth	Sunday, February 14th 6:00-8:00 p.m.	Youth Building

WEDNESDAY NIGHT WORSHIP

Mid-week worship services have resumed! Food is served at 6:15 p.m. and the service begins at 6:45 p.m. Matt is currently teaching on "Worry, Stress and Anxiety". Thank you to Austin and his music team for leading us in worship each week too. We hope to see you there!

Cast all you anxiety on HIM because He cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7)

JUNIOR/SENIOR RETREAT

The current Juniors and Seniors recently spent a weekend at Lake Lure. The retreat was a time of food, fellowship, discipleship and fun! Everyone zip lined at The Gorge in Saluda, NC on Saturday afternoon. The weekend concluded with the group attending a worship service at Grace Church in Greenville and lunch. We are thankful for all who attended!

STAY CONNECTED:

Matt's Info:
Cell-864.245.8607
E-mail-mwurst@asd2.org

Amy's Info:
Cell-864.940.4605
Email-awurst@asd2.org

FIRST BAPTIST BELTON YOUTH MINISTRY

WINTER 2021 edition

Parenting in Every Season By LifeWay Girls

Helping your student navigate different seasons can feel so overwhelming at times. How do you manage the ups, downs, disappointments, consequences, or grief he/she may be experiencing? As parents, we want to “fix it” when our kids are struggling. It’s so hard to see them go through tough seasons and it can be tempting to step in and attempt to change their behavior when what we actually need to do is to pray for a change of heart.

Often we face the temptation of wanting a hard season with our teen to be over because we desire comfort—we don’t like to struggle and we don’t like to see our kids struggle. Another reason we hate to see them go through hard seasons is because we are sometimes afraid of what other people will think of them or us. Friends, let’s get set free from that! Let’s be kingdom focused and be parents who pray for each of our children’s hearts and not just their behaviors. The heart will be reflected in the behavior, which means what they believe about God, themselves, and others is what truly matters.

BELOW is a specific struggle your child may or may not be dealing with and a corresponding prayer. Use it as starting point to pray truths over your children’s lives.

Rebellion

God’s Truth — 1 Corinthians 10:13; Acts 5:29;
James 4:7; Romans 2:4

Your Prayerful Response:

Lord, thank You for loving me as I’ve gone through seasons of rebellion. As a parent, it is hard to see (insert child’s name) walking in rebellion. Help me as I guide him/her through this tough season. God, I pray that he/she turns from it and accepts your invitation to escape the temptation to walk in disobedience. I pray for him/her to totally submit to You, resist the devil, and have a desire to obey You. May I love them well and use this season as an opportunity to point them to You. Amen.

The Heart

God’s Truth – Ephesians 3:16-19; Proverbs 3:5

Your Prayerful Response:

Father, I pray that (insert child’s name) trusts in You with all his/her heart and submits to You in all his/her ways. May they be reminded that You dwell in their hearts through faith and that they are strengthened with Your power. I pray that their hearts are rooted in Your love and that they grasp the width, height, and depth of the unexplainable love of Christ. Amen.

Cast all you anxiety on HIM because He cares for you.
(1 Peter 5:7)